March 2020 Edition

“Remember, Repent & Redo”

“Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works;” (Rev. 2:4)

Jesus gave this charge to the church of Ephesus who had “left its FIRST Love.” March is the time of year that many people begin thinking about “spring cleaning”, and a new fresh start. Winter is in our rear-view mirror and summer is just ahead. Flowers are in that pre-blooming pose, and a glimpse of green can be found on the trees. Actually, spring is my favorite time of the year. I love seeing, and feeling the sun for a change from the often cloudy, gloomy winter days. (Although, this winter was pretty mild.)

Spring also gives us something else that many around here think of... “Planting season.” You can’t have a harvest in the fall, if no planting is done in the spring. This brings me back to my “main” point for this addition of our newsletter. Farmers don’t have a harvest season without a planting season and churches don’t work without workers. I would like to encourage our churches in Little River Baptist Association to think of March as “Outreach Awareness Month.”

When Jesus told the church of Ephesus that the way to turn around a faltering love was to remember, repent and redo. He was bringing the church back to the basics; love in action. Jesus told another man who had inquired as to the “Greatest” commandment; Jesus said, “Love God with all your heart, soul and mind, and love your neighbor as yourself.” Love can be shown in no better way than to be concerned about where someone a neighbor or friend spends eternity; Heaven or Hell.

Let’s join our forces together to reach Trigg County for Christ.

In Christ service,
Bro. Bobby

The Little River Mission Board recently voted in our meeting held, February 3rd, at Hurricane BC, to rename our Associational Mission Fund to the “Mev Fredenburg Mission Fund/ Mission Offering.” Mev, as most know her by, served as a Southern Baptist Missionary nurse in Nigeria for 38 years. Following her retirement in 1988, Mev moved to Cadiz, and managed, “The Shepherd’s Shop,” a Christian bookstore, for a number of years. We are pleased to announce that our mission fund will continue in her honor.
