November 2019 Edition

Do you have a Cool Spirit?"

Whoever restrains his words has knowledge, and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding. (Proverbs 17:27)

In 1916, then President Woodrow Wilson was facing a very tough re-election campaign. There were many people who expected him to lose and be a one-term president. The economy was faltering, World War I was looming, and there was an uneasiness within the country. Wilson's advisors were greatly concerned but somehow, the President appeared to have no fear. A Secret Service Agent by the name of Edmund Starling stated: "The President would have been worried too had he not been trained, as I was, in the Presbyterian doctrine of predestination. He was completely calm, having decided that he had done his best to fill the job and his future in it was in the hands of God."

Now, obviously not all believers are Presbyterians and many of us have a completely different view about predestination, but the point is that every believer should recognize the fact that God is control; no matter your circumstances. Jesus remains on His throne. He works all things together for our good, and He deals with history according to His foreordained plan.

President Woodrow Wilson later said "The Bible is the one supreme source of revelation.... It is the only guide of life which really leads the spirit in the way of peace and salvation."

When we spend time in prayer, and believe God has led us to make a difficult decision, leave it in God's hands and have the peace that He is control. In Christ... "he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding."

Thank You

I would like to personally thank each and every church for the generous gift and recognition of my 25 years of service at our Annual Meeting. I was totally at a loss for words, and certainly not deserving of such a generous gift. I love each and every one of you, and count it a tremendous blessing to be able to work with each church. I know that God has placed me here to serve, and has blessed me year after year by being able to be a part of every one of our churches. I look forward to continuing to serve each of you to the best of my ability, and I am thankful that the Lord has allowed me to continue to do so. God bless each and every one of you!

Mrs. Shari
