June 2025 Edition

"Let the Little Ones Come"

Matthew 19:14 - "Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

The month of June always brings fond memories of my childhood. School was out, money could be made working in hay fields or mowing yards in the neighborhood. However, what also became fun was the various Vacation Bible Schools in our area. In Trigg County, it is not only VBS but also Camp Cadiz.

In this scripture mentioned above, we find a divine directive to embrace and educate our children in the ways of the Lord. As we prepare for a new summer of opportunities for Vacation Bible School & Camp Cadiz, let us explore the significance of this calling.

Welcome the Wonder: Jesus' words remind us to welcome the wonder of childhood. Children possess an innate curiosity and a pure-hearted faith that we, as adults, can learn from. Vacation Bible School provides a perfect platform to nurture this wonder, teaching them about God's love and the beauty of His creation.

Foster Faith: Vacation Bible School is an opportunity to foster faith in the hearts of our young ones. Through engaging lessons, interactive activities, and heartfelt worship, we can plant seeds of faith that will grow and flourish throughout their lives. Let us not hinder their spiritual growth but encourage it with open arms.

Cultivate Community: In the spirit of unity, VBS and Camp Cadiz cultivates a sense of community among our children. It is a time for them to build friendships, learn the value of teamwork, and experience the joy of fellowship. By coming together in this way, we strengthen the bonds of our church family and create lasting memories.

Inspire Imagination: Both Camp Cadiz and VBS inspire imagination and creativity. Through storytelling, crafts, music and even hard work, children can explore the wonders of God's Word in a way that captivates their hearts and minds. Let us encourage their creativity and help them see the Bible as a living, breathing testament to God's love. Jesus said: "Let the little children come to me." May we welcome them with open hearts, foster their faith, cultivate a sense of community, and inspire their imagination.

Serving God by Serving Others.

In Christ Service,

Bro. Bobby
