November 2025 Edition

Thanksgiving

The month of November seems to kick-off the holiday season. Food, fellowships, family and friends are on the docket for the next couple of months. Thanksgiving is far more than a seasonal celebration or a shared meal—it is a foundational principle woven throughout the Bible. For believers, thanksgiving is both a command and a privilege, shaping our relationship with God and others.

The Bible speaks a great deal about Thanksgiving in both Old and New Testaments. The Apostle Paul told the people of Philippi, “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.” (Phil. 4:6)

Paul told the folks at Thessalonica, “In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.” (1 Thess. 5:18). Charles Dickens said that we are mixed up in America. He suggested that instead of having one Thanksgiving Day each year we should have 364. Use that one day for complaining and griping. Use the other 364 to thank God each day for the many blessings He has showered upon you. He may be on to something.

Someone wrote the following: “It is not life’s circumstances that determine the quality of our lives but how we respond to them.”

Let me give you eight things to be thankful for: Be grateful...

For automatic dishwashers. They make it possible to get out of the kitchen before the family comes in for their after-dinner snacks.

For husbands who attack small repair jobs around the house. They usually make them big enough to call in professionals.

For the bathtub -- the one place the family allows Mom some time to herself.

For children who put away their things away and clean up after themselves. They’re such a joy you hate to see them go home to their own parents.

For gardening. It’s a relief to deal with dirt outside the house for a change.

For teenagers. They give parents an opportunity to learn a second language.

For smoke alarms. They let you know when the turkey’s done.

Happy
