“Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields”

(John 4:34-38) “Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.”

Billy Graham is a name recognized around the world. He publicly proclaimed Jesus Christ and preached the gospel to more people than any individual in history. Few figures have been as widely known or as influential. If anyone understood the urgency of spiritual harvest, it was Billy Graham. He once said:

“The evangelistic harvest is always urgent. The destiny of individuals and nations is continually being decided. Every generation is strategic. While we are not responsible for past generations, nor can we bear full responsibility for future ones, we are accountable for our own. God will hold us responsible for how faithfully we respond to the opportunities of our time.”

Our evangelistic “Harvest Crusade” coming on September 20-23 brings Little River churches and the community of Trigg county to the threshold of what could be the greatest harvest of souls for the Lord Jesus Christ in our history. Today, more people worldwide live without Christ than at any other point in human history, making the need for the gospel both urgent and unparalleled.

The opportunities for missions, evangelism, and kingdom growth have never been greater. More nations are open to the message of the gospel than ever before. At the same time, American society faces profound challenges—crime, substance abuse, abortion, euthanasia, the breakdown of the family, and widespread moral confusion—contributing to a deeply discouraged and disillusioned culture.

The question, therefore, is not whether opportunity exists, but whether we will seize it. As has been wisely said, four things never return: a spoken word, a released arrow, a past life, and a neglected opportunity.

Jesus Himself never failed to act when opportunity presented itself. In John 4, He met a woman at a well and transformed a simple encounter into a moment of eternal significance by bringing her into the kingdom of God. The words of Christ should ring loud in our ears... “Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields...”

In Christ Service,

Bro. Bobby
